aequationes mathematicae is published by the University of Waterloo and Birkhäuser Verlag.
The journal will publish papers in pure and applied mathematics in general but, in particular, papers on functional equations, combinatorial and numerical analysis. The languages in which papers will generally be accepted are English, French, and German.
Types of manuscripts that will be considered for publication include original research papers, problems and their solutions, expository papers and, as short communications, self-contained abstracts of papers which have been accepted for publication either by this or some other journal with a referee system.
Manuscripts of papers should be submitted to the Editorial Office or to a member of the editorial board. Authors of papers should send the original and two additional copies. Since it is the policy of the journal to publish in advance short communications of all results it accepts for publication, authors should include with the original submissions a self-contained abstract of their paper of length 25–100 lines, which contains a precise statement of the results in the paper. Authors should also include an AMS classification for their paper.
